The Mount Vernon Veterans Service Agency (VSA) and Central Committee for Veterans Affairs (CCVA) under Mayor Richard Thomas present the annual Memorial Day Parade on Monday, May 29, 2017 @ 9:30 am.

We are currently accepting applications for registration in the parade. Performance acts, floats, drum-lines, bands, vehicles, dancers, cheerleaders, community organizations, businesses, and others are encouraged to register to participate in this parade honoring those that have made the ultimate sacrifice. There is NO FEE for registration/ participation in the 2017 Memorial Day Parade.

For the first time ever, we will have Macy's style parade balloons and local news coverage! This is an excellent opportunity for your organization or business to show its support for the Mt. Vernon veteran community.

If you have a group that would like to participate, please complete the registration sheet on the back of this flyer and deliver it by May 15th to the VSA Office in Room #4 on the ground floor of City Hall. We look forward to your contribution to this day of remembrance.

It flies with the last breath of every soldier who died protecting it."
